

Washington Man Youngest Pilot In Grid Loop

Allan (Red) Johnson,
Friend of Bergman,
Named Trainer

Sidney A. Carroll, a Washington man, long with the Redskins, today was appointed general manager of the world champ football club. He succeeds Jack Espey, who resigned in April to become associated with the Uline Arena. Carroll, who has been business manager of the Redskins since 1940, takes over his duties immediately.

Carroll is 27 years old, is married and is the youngest general manager for a National League football club. He lives in nearby Clarendon.

Carroll's job will be to handle all team details, including transportation. He will also direct the extracurricular entertainment features, including the between-the-halves shows which have featured at Redskins games.

New Trainer Obtained.
Allan W. "Red" Johnson, for many years physical conditioner at Lafayette College and long a friend of Coach Dutch Bergman, has been appointed trainer for the Redskins. He replaced Ray (Doc) Mauro, who resigned last fall. Mauro became a Navy chief specialist.

Johnson is a man with considerable athletic training background and the ability to bring athletes up to top condition for important contests.

The new leg-bender will report July 1, to arrange details for the trip of the champs to San Diego, leaving the Capital around July 21.

Johnson has been at several colleges, in a physical training role, including Southern California, Texas Tech, Northwestern, Columbia and Colgate. He was recommended for the post with the Redskins by his former bosses at Lafayette.

Carroll worked closely with Espey, who originated many of the whoopee-doo features which gained the Redskins a reputation as a colorful outfit.

Deadlock for Hunts Cup

Slugging Hanbury Is to Tackle Keen Boxer in Wilson Monday

Washington's Lew Hanbury, Jr., hailed as a coming champion after he trimmed Jackie Callura recently, will be tested by a different type of fighter when he faces Jackie Wilson in the feature 10-round of Monday night's program at Griffith Stadium. Wilson is a clever boxer as he proved against slugging Danny Petro here. He has a stiff right hand and a good left jab. He also can take a punch. He has the ring savvy and stamina to weather the storm, clear away the cobwebs and box his way to safety.

Victory Club League Boost for Bowling

Summertime Loop Plays
Two 16-Team Sections

Summertime bowling promises to be given a big boost within the next fortnight when pinspillers of the United States Army Map Services and other Government departments get the Victory Club League underway at a place still to be selected.

The new handicap loop is being organized by Ned Warner, long identified with Washington area Virginia bowling. The former assistant manager of Alexandria Recreation, now working for Uncle Sam, expects to form two 16-team sections, one for beginners and the other for experienced rollers.

One feature will be to pay off all prizes in War bonds and stamps. Government employees interested in joining are requested to drop a card to Ned Warner, 2405 Mount Vernon boulevard, Alexandria, Va.

Outlay Opens Crown In Utah Golf

SALT LAKE CITY, June 24.—Ed Dudley, president of the Professional Golfers' Association, will defend his title in the Utah Open July 9 and 10. He is summer pro at the Broadmoor course, Colorado Springs. Ellsworth Vines, former tennis pro, also may enter. Prize money, payable in War stamps and bonds, totals $1,000.

Indian Spring Fund for Mobile Red Cross Unit Now Is $800

Club Holds Pro-Amateur Event Wednesday;
Chevy Chase Women in Second Cup Round

By WALTER McALLUM.
Indian Spring Country Club already has around $800 in the kitty to buy a mobile unit for the Red Cross, and club officers are confident the canteen can be bought by early fall.

All the better golfers of the Four Corners club will turn out July 7 to play in the first major amateur-pro tourney of the year, over the 9-hole layout. All amateurs will hail from Indian Spring, under a schedule for tournaments arranged by the Middle Atlantic PGA several months ago. At the golfers' pros agreed to hold tourneys with the amateurs all from the club holding the affair.

But the OPA apparently stymied them, or the pros got scared. Any-way Indian Spring, with Pro Mel Shorey carrying the ball, is the only club which has scheduled an amateur-pro affair. With the deadlock broken other pros may get on the bandwagon, and hold tournaments, even if the amateurs travel by bus. Other people do it. It isn't too tough for the pampered golfers to carry their own bags to a golf event.

Neat Sunday, while the club team is playing a match against the Naval Reserve Aviation Base team, other Indian Spring linksmen will compete in a cigarette tourney, hoped to raise $100 worth of smokes to be sent overseas. Teams competing in the forthcoming match will play the following results:

It isn't yet known whether Indian Spring will defend its Maryland State team championship. Probably the matches won't be held, for the Maryland association, like some other Eastern golf bodies, has abandoned tournaments, which probably also means a team event.

But efforts still are being made by officials of the Maryland and District associations to stage one big event, in which the two organizations will pool their efforts. Arrangements have been held up by the illness of Dr. E. A. Keilly, president of the Maryland association.

Chevy Chase Club linkswomen today will start the second round in the tourney for the French High Commission Cup, a trophy now in its 25th year of competition.

The first round has wound up with the following results:
Mrs. A. Y. P. Garmet defeated Mrs. C. B. Munson by default; Mrs. T. P. Shul-le defeated Mrs. F. N. Israel, 4 and 3; Baroness de Gruben defeated Mrs. W. P. Tomkins, 3 and 2; Mrs. J. J. White drew a bye; Mrs. A. W. Walker defeated Mrs. B. Platt, 3 and 2; Mrs. R. M. Kaufmann III defeated Mrs. A. Wilcox by default; Mrs. W. J. Severn defeated Mrs. Henry Ravenel, 1 up; Mrs. A. J. Phelan drew a bye.

Finalists in the Treasurer's Cup tourney will get together over the coming week end to battle for the cup presented several years ago by William F. Ham. In a postponed semi-final match Dr. W. C. Stirling and W. B. Mason, Jr., whipped C. B. Hawley and P. S. Ridsdale, 2 up. The winners will meet Landis B. Platt and Don De Veau, who won their way to the final a fortnight ago.

Savoldi Outrassles Long, Regains D. C. Following

Joe Savoldi, former world rassing champ, won back his old following here last night when, making his first stop here in two years, he defeated Johnny Long in 37 minutes at Turner's. His favorite weapon, the drop kick, was the finishing touch.

Babe Sharkey and Abe Yurist grappled 20 minutes to a no-contest decision, with the referee halting the match after they got into an argument outside the ring.

Bib Ben Morgan defeated Milo Steinborn. Dick Lever won over Chief Bambu Tabu and Dick Craddock and Ace Freeman drew.

Eight Starters Seen For Rich Brooklyn

Five in $100,000 Class
As Money Grabbers

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 24.—Jockeys have been engaged for eight eligibles for Saturday's $30,000 Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct, so there should be at least that many starters in the main closing feature.

The jockeys are G. Woolf on Shut Out, S. Brooks on Devil Diver, A. Robertson on Don Blingo, V. Nodarse on Market Wise, J. Longden on Attention, T. Atkinson on Pictor, W. Mehrten on War Hazard and J. Stout on Vagrancy.

If there should be nine starters, the race will be worth $23,200 to the winner, five of the probabilities—Shut Out, Devil Diver, Market Wise, Pictor and Attention—have won $100,000 or more in prize money.

Fair Fan 4 Years In Asking Refund

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—It took a lady baseball fan nearly four years to make up her mind. Roy Mack, vice president of the Athletics, disclosed he had received a letter inclosing a $1.71 box seat ticket, for October 1, 1939, and asking a refund. Checking the records, he found the game that day was postponed and refunded the money.

Ammunition Is to Be Available To Hunters Really Needing It

Essential Civilian Users to Get Shells,
According to Government Officials

By the Associated Press.
There will be ammunition for the hunters who can show a need for it. Government officials said today, but the gasoline shortage may yet save many a bounding buck.

Officials who said plans were under way to provide ammunition for civilian sportsmen, and to "see that it goes to those who need it," declined to say how distribution would be controlled. It was indicated, however, that each hunter's present supply would be considered in fixing his allotment.

Total stocks in the hands of sportsmen are believed to be fairly large, but distributed so unevenly that some are stocked for the season, while others haven't a thing.

With many dealers' shelves already bare, the War Production Board stepped in nearly two months ago to protect the remaining supplies on the market with an order sharply limiting sales and requiring authorizations to make purchases.

WPA said production of shotgun shells and other ammunition useful to sportsmen was "huge," with steel being substituted for brass and copper, but reported that almost all of it had to be channeled to the military services.

The limitation order set up quotas—25 shotgun shells each quarter, for instance—for "essential" civilian users, including defense plant guards, other law enforcement officers, farmers and ranchers, who get authorizations automatically. All others seeking authorizations are required to show essential need, and WPA hasn't considered recreational hunting in that category.

Meanwhile, Ira N. Gabrielson, the Wildlife Division director, said sportsmen who can solve the gasoline as well as the ammunition problem can expect good hunting when the season rolls around.

"Generally speaking," he told an interviewer, "the game situation is good."

Bowling List Revised

Due to an error in compilation of scores and handicaps a new prize list for last Sunday's Red Cross tournament at Petworth follows:

Fast St. Louis Stars Test Grays Tonight

Present Strong Infield
In Making Debut Here

St. Louis Stars, third-place club in the Negro National League, will test the defending champions and loop leaders, Washington Homestead Grays, in a game tonight at Griffith Stadium, starting at 8:30.

This is St. Louis' first stop here this season. Managed by Harry Williams, former shortstop of the New York Black Yankees, the Stars pack speed and punch and present a particularly attractive infield with Dan Wilson at third, Jimmy Ford at second and Jim Starks at first along with Williams.

Heading the Stars' pitching staff is Charley Boone, who recently fanned 16 Newark Eagles for a season record.

WASTE IN WAR IS A CRIME

BE REASONABLE IN YOUR USE OF ELECTRICITY

AMERICA has gone from a nation of plenty to a land of rationing, to win this war.

This Company, so far, has been able to maintain the same standards of electrical service to all its customers that has become noteworthy in the past. But, things are not as usual, and we must join hands in mutual self-denial and economy to meet the demands of war. To run our business, we need thousands of tons of fuel and large quantities of materials brought here by extraordinary effort of the railroads. These private transportation facilities are now overburdened in delivering huge quantities of materials and supplies for our armed forces. Every car of fuel, or other materials that can be saved in transportation, in the conduct of our local business, means extra transportation space to carry vitally necessary war materials to our fighting forces overseas. So, use electricity carefully and do not waste it, simply because it is cheap and unrated.

There is no shortage of electricity here or over America. There is, at present, plenty of power for war production and civilian needs. Every reasonable need of Washington and surrounding areas served by this Company is now being fully met, but this does not condone waste of electricity, which is a war material. "Willful waste brings woeful want."
